

Taylor Pigman
Samford University
407-756-4708
tpigman@samford.edu
@unlockbham

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSING SERVICES OF BIRMINGHAM AND BIRMINGHAM MUSEUM OF ART PARTNER WITH PHILLIPS ACADEMY FOR UNLOCK BIRMINGHAM CAMPAIGN ART EXHIBIT

Birmingham, AL. (February 16, 2015) – Neighborhood Housing Services of Birmingham (NHSB) and the Birmingham Museum of Art have partnered with Phillips Academy to host an art exhibit as part of NHSB’s “Unlock Birmingham” campaign. The exhibit will be hosted at the Birmingham Museum of Art on Thursday, Feb. 19 from 3:30 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

The featured artwork from Phillips Academy students will highlight what the students love most about Birmingham and what the city means to them. The exhibit is a component of NHSB’s “Unlock Birmingham” campaign in an effort to raise awareness of affordable housing options in the city of Birmingham. Approximately 15 canvases will be displayed throughout the Birmingham Museum of Art. Light refreshments and additional information on services provided by NHSB will be available for guests.

“The students did really well with these canvases,” said Corry Mulligan, an “Unlock Birmingham” campaign member. “Getting the students to participate in the campaign has been a great way generate community involvement with the campaign and with Neighborhood Housing Services of Birmingham.”

###

Neighborhood Housing Services of Birmingham, Inc. (NHSB) was chartered in 1970 with a mission to stabilize urban neighborhoods in the city of Birmingham by offering programs and services that empower individuals to overcome their present and upcoming financial challenges.